

Fall Recruiting Signs

Directional Signs: Use these signs on outside doors and inside hallways to help new Cub Scouts and parents find their way to the Fall Recruiting Night location. These can also be used for the first few pack meetings. Print the signs on brightly colored paper (bright yellow works well).

Table Tents help families find to the right place to sit. Print the grade level and instruction signs on colorful paper or cardstock, then fold, and tape or staple the bottoms and place them on the tables. Your new Cub Scouts can find their places quickly! If you don't have colored paper, stuff brightly colored tissue paper so it sticks out the sides.
