Knight, Knight, Are You Ready?

Materials:

Instructions:

1. Have the Cub Scouts stand or sit in a circle - with one Cub Scout as the "Knight" in the center.

Designate a goal line to run to that is 15 to 20 feet away from the circle.

2. The Cub Scouts call "Knight, Knight, are you ready?" The knight answers, "No, I'm putting on my boots" and pantomimes putting on his boots. The others imitate him.

3. Again they ask "Knight, Knight, are you ready?" and he replies that he is putting on his armor, helmet, gloves, etc - each time acting out putting on the item, while all of the other follow him.

4. Whenever the knight wishes, the Knight answers with "Yes, I'm ready, and here I come." When the knight says that the players rush to a designated goal line and then Knight tries to tag them. The first person tagged becomes the Knight.
