Stars and Planets Opening

Materials:

Song sheets for “Stars and Planets”

Cubmaster:

Today we’re going to sing a song to start off our time together!

Our song is called “Stars and Planets” and this is how it goes.

Stars and Planets

To the tune of “Frère Jacques” or “Are You Sleeping?”

Stars and planets, stars and planets

Comets too, comets too

Meteor shower, Meteor shower

Zoom, zoom, zoom

Zoom, zoom, zoom

Let’s sing it together and then let’s try to sing in as a round.

[Sing the song together.]

Cubmaster: Now please join me in the saying the Pledge of Allegiance and the Cub Scout Promise.

The tune to “Stars and Planets” (Frere Jacques) can be found at

Spaceships in Flight - Ultimate Playing Skills

Materials:

Flying disks, something to aim flying disks

Ultimate Passing Techniques

Divide the Cub Scouts into teams and have them take turns practicing some of the illustrated throwing techniques.

Then set up a target – even a spot on the ground - and have boys try to land the disks on the spot for target practice.

Variations: Once they have practiced throwing, they could play “catch” with the disks, play “keep away” – or see how long they can throw it down a line of people without it hitting the ground. Practicing how to catch the flying disk is also an important skill.

Walk On The Moon

Materials:

1 sheet of paper per Cub Scout

Scissors

Masking tape for starting and turning lines

Instructions:

1. Have the Cub Scouts orient their paper “landscape” and have each of them fold their paper in half. Then they can either cut with scissors or tear their paper in half.

2. Divide the Cub Scouts into relay teams.

2. Cub Scouts (“Astronauts”) line up behind a starting line about 15 feet away from a turning line.

3. On signal, the first person on each team places his paper pieces on the floor, one in front of the other, and puts one foot on each. To move toward the ‘moon’, he picks up the rear piece of paper, moves it in front of the other piece and then steps forward on it. In this way, players continue to move until the first “astronaut” has reached the moon (turning line) and returned to earth (starting line).

4. The first player tags the next Cub Scout on his team who does the same “moon walk.” The first team to have all players complete the “walk on the moon” wins the race.

Variations: This race can be performed by relay teams (as written) or individuals.

North Star Examples Closing

Materials:

None

Cubmaster:

For thousands of years, mankind has known that the North Star (a star that's part of the Little Dipper constellation) is fixed in the sky. It does not move. Seamen have used it and other heavenly bodies to guide their ships. Shepherds and travelers used it to make sure they were going the right direction. Even today, stars are important in the navigation for ships, planes and spacecraft.

Cub Scouts don't often use stars to find their way, but sometimes we need friends who are constant and fixed like the North Star. Constant and fixed friends are those that are honest and helpful and loyal friends who are always trying to do their best. Can you think of any friends that you have that are like the North Star?
