

Attention Cub Scouts!

Looking for a cool place to have year-round fun and earn Scout belt loops, pins and badge requirements?

Visit the Children's Museum of Houston, where you can explore 14 galleries of non-stop, hands-on learning and work toward earning Scout achievements!

Don't miss these current exhibits, which provide great opportunities for Cub Scouts:

EcoStation	Outdoor, environmental exhibit that includes a native plant garden, woodland area, pond and a research pavilion	Wildlife Conservation Academics Pin
Expressions	This open-air art studio allows kids to be creative on easels with tempera paint and watercolor	Art Belt Loop Art Academics Pin
Farm to Market	Shop for a healthy meal, milk the robotic cow, and see live chicks, while learning about nutrition and money-management	Mathematics Academics Pin
How Does it Work?	Explore engineering concepts or create an experiment in the Science Station	Science Academics Pin
Invention Convention (May 19 – Sept. 30, 2007)	Step into a workshop of gadgets and gizmos where kids can create, concoct and construct contraptions	Science Academics Pin
Parent Resource Library	Check out books by signing up for a free Power Card and join the Summer Reading Program.	Communicating Academics Pin Wolf Elective 6: Books, Books, Books
Yalálag: A Mountain Village in Mexico	Learn about Oaxacan villagers through vivid photographs, practice Spanish and Zapotec words in the school house	Heritages Academics Pin Collecting Academics Belt Loop Language & Culture Academics Belt Loop
Tour the entire Museum!	There's something new every day at CMH. Free Family Nights are every Thursday from 5 – 8 p.m. courtesy of The Wortham Foundation, Inc. and John P. McGovern, M.D.	Wolf Achievement 10c: Family Fun Wolf Achievement 10a: Family Fun

Save the Date!

Look for more details about CUB SCOUT DAY at the Children's Museum of Houston on September 29, 2007. Check www.cmhouston.org under "Plan a Visit"

For questions contact Tara Lang at (713)535-7268 or tlang@cmhouston.org.

Children's Museum of Houston